Who Are the Best Insurance Companies for Your Family?

Insurance serves as an indispensable financial tool for your family. Good insurance coverage relieves money worries and in case of disaster or injury it steps-in to preserve your savings.

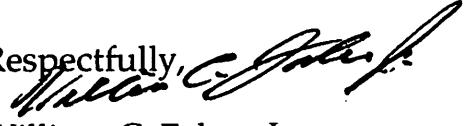

A national insurance company advertises on television telling you to buy "only what you need". There are two problems with this advice. First, it's unlikely you really understand what coverage you need. Second, the ads' implication is to buy the minimum amount of coverage. Well, here is the plain fact - you probably need more coverage than you realize.

There are lots of insurance companies to choose from. So, how do you know who to rely on? A well-known consumer advocacy organization surveyed 60,000 members. Members highly rated these companies:

USAA
Erie
The Cincinnati

Auto-Owners
Country Companies
State Farm

I hope this information helps.

Respectfully,

William C. Faber, Jr.
